

Storm Water and Erosion Control Workshop For Developers, Inspectors, and Construction Contractors

A free 3-hour course summarizing current stormwater and erosion control regulations, water quality testing and monitoring options, including demonstration(s) of turbidity tests, and Best Management Practices (BMPs) related to various soil types.

WHEN: Thursday, October 5, 2006
9am -12pm

WHERE: Placer County's Community Development and Resource Agency Building
3091 County Center Drive (Corner of Bell and Richardson-map on back)
Cypress Conference Room (Enter Main Public Door, Room on Right)
Auburn, CA

TOPICS INCLUDE: Local and State Ordinance(s)
Permit Requirements
Construction Best Management Practices
Turbidity Testing Demo
Non-Visual Pollutant Monitoring and Demo

PRESENTED BY: Dannas Berchtold - Central Valley Regional Water Quality Control Board

Mark White - Placer County Resource Conservation District (RCD)

Mary Keller - Placer County Stormwater Quality Program Coordinator

Bernie Schroeder -City of Auburn

Bonnie Peterson - Ecorp Consulting Inc.

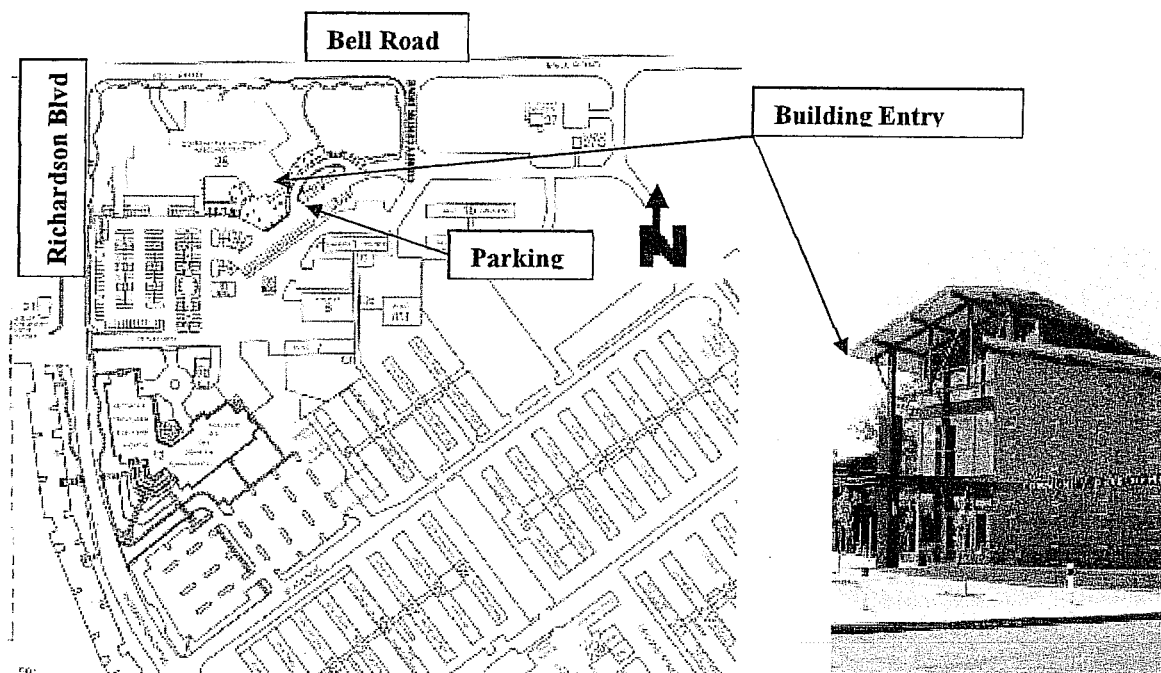

HOSTED BY: Placer County, City of Auburn, California Water Quality Control Board, and Placer County Resource Conservation District.

SPACE IS LIMITED
Please RSVP to Mary Keller
By October 4th

For more information please call:

Placer County:	Mary Keller at (530)745-7503
City of Auburn:	Russ Koch at (530) 823-4211 x 130
Placer County RCD:	Mark White at (530) 885-3046 x 117

Map to New CDRA Building and Parking:

Additional parking can be found along Bell Road or off of Richardson or B Ave.

CDRA Building Location

